'No' Holiday But Wall St. Acted Like It

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market slipped lower more from neglect than from selling pressure.

It was practically a holiday in all of Wall Street, although the Stock Exchange and American Stock Exchange operated as usual, having given up celebrating Lincoln's birthday some years ago.

Oils met some pressure with the international issues softest at losses running to more than 3 points. Chemicals slipper off fractions to more than a point. Steels joined the decline. Rails, utilities, motors, selected aircrafts and some special issues fell back.

Several specials held a fair share of early gains that had ranged up to 4 points.

But on the whole the financial district was almost deserted as it is on a Sunday.

Hollinger Leads

TORONTO (CP)—The stock market scored a hesitant advance in moderately active trading.

Industrials, down almost one-half point, recovered at the close for a few decimal points gain. Golds were more than one-half point higher. Base metals lost more than three-quarters while western oils, ahead throughout the session, slipped down one-quarter at the close.

Final volume was 3,860,000 shares, slightly higher than Wednesday's 3,728,000.

Papers showed the best gains in industrials with Howard Smith up 1½ at 45.

Hollinger led the golds higher, rising ⅞ at 31⅞. The company announced its usual six-cent quarterly dividend, plus an additional six cents.

Early gains disappeared in western oils with Pacific Pete down ¼ at 16⅜ while Bailey-Selburn and Central Del Rio each lost 10 cents.

Shawinigan Boosted

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges staged a mild recovery during the afternoon.

Banks, utilities and refining oils edged higher, while most other stock classifications were mixed.

Shawinigan was the highlight of the utilities, up 1 at 32½, following a secondary distribution of 115,000 shares after Wednesday's close. Calgary Power lost ½ at 87.

BA continued active and firm, up ¼ at 44¼. Aluminium, off ¾ at 28½, was the highlight of a mixed base metal group.

Papers dipped slightly. Anglo-Newfoundland gained ⅛ at 7½, and Consolidated lost ½ at 43½. Construction issues were unchanged to narrowly lower.

In the western oils Home A gained ¼ at 20¼ and Pacific Pete lost ⅜ at 16⅜.

Ocean Cement Gains

VANCOUVER—Prices were mixed. Ocean Cement held its new high of $17, while Alberta Distillers at 3.50 and Powell River at 39¼ remained strong. Trans Canada weakened to $27¾ but Westminster Paper was up a point at $30.

Coppers held steady with Bethlehem at 1.16, Cowichan at 1.07 and Craigmont 3.70. Sheep Creek rallied to 1.23.

Basco, Vantor and Peace River made moderate gains in oils.

Grain Prices

WINNIPEG (CP) — Fairly active trading in rye, reflecting reports of export interest, featured trading today in a generally dull session on the Winnipeg grain exchange.

There were no reports of actual sales of rye for export, though inquiries were received. Prices were fairly steady.

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market showed some rallying power in spots after generally weak early dealings.

The advances were small and scattered most of the time but March rye was up as much as a cent or more a bushel.

Yugoslavia was the only export buyer of wheat, taking another 350,000 bushels for shipment next month.
